DAYDREAMS OF A PASTOR... Fr. John O'Neill is on vacation with his three Sisters, so we welcome a special guest writer for this Daydream.

St. James School Graduation Speech by Emma Long...

What is St. James about? It's about a community, it's about a family. This class is a family. Some of us have grown up together. But those who have joined in recent years have adapted to our way of learning and how we treat others. You never knew what each day would bring to you. There were days where we were all tired and didn't want to talk. But there were also days where we were bouncing off the walls.

As we have grown up, we have made so many memories with each other. I'd like to take you all on a trip with me down memory lane. For those who were in Pre-K, Michael, Allison, Alex and I, can say play-dough time with Auntie Judy was the best. In kindergarten, we were the only class to have two classes. This was the only time our class got split apart from each other. First grade, we got to take Shadow the bear home for the weekend. Show 'n' tell. I know we all loved that. Allison's slap bracelets. I hate to tell you this but you aren't getting those things back. Second grade, we had a chinchilla. It's not every day you see a pet in a classroom. 28, the amount of kids we had in that class. That's Mrs. Fauxbel and Ms. Salvas' worst nightmare but somehow they still loved us. Third grade, Hayden yelled "Get the knife!". Hunter came into school with one shoe on. I'm not sure how, but it is possible to forget a shoe. Fourth grade, we got our pen license. Fifth grade, we went to Mystic Aquarium for a field trip. While we were there we kept getting splashed by a whale named Juno. Sixth grade, we spent the last four months of our school year online. Seventh grade, we were all maturing. Well, maybe not for all of us. Remember when you stapled your finger, Alex. We dissected seven different things. A frog, a crayfish, a fish, a clam, a worm, a chicken wing, and a sheep eye.

It seems like just yesterday we stepped into this school for our first time, and now here we are on our graduation day. We walked into St. James always dreaming about being a big kid and a role model to all the younger kids. And it is safe to say that we are some pretty cool and scary big kids. We have learned lots of new things. For example, everything tends to be funny to the boys, and watching cheese age or hiding cheese around the classroom is enjoyable. Well, to the boys. Not so much to the girls. When you become eighth graders you always think this year will go by so slow because you just want to move onto a new chapter.

But, it actually goes by very quickly. Every day is your last at St. James. Your last first day, last dance, last art class, last recess, last pacer test, last test, last Mass day, last math class, last religion class, last English class, last time wearing a uniform, and your last time seeing your teachers. The people who have helped you grow and changed your life one step at a time. As you begin your last week of school at St. James, you go through all your good and bad times you've had. As the unknown said, "In life we do things. Some we wish we never did. Some we wish we could replay a million times in our heads. But they all make us who we are, and in the end they shape every detail about us. If we were to reverse any of them we wouldn't be the person we are. So just live, make mistakes, have wonderful memories, but never ever second guess who you are, where you have been, and most importantly where it is your going."

I have been dreaming of this day since I was a little girl. It is finally that time to hear Ms. Montigny say we are officially graduates of St. James School and we can move our tassels. I never would have thought that I would be here right now saying this speech, but I think little Emma would be very happy. I would like to take a quick moment to thank everyone who has helped me, and my class become who we are today. Especially to Ms. Montigny, Mrs. Hanley, and Miss. Lajoie, thank you for always being there for our class for the past three years. I can't say how much we have all appreciated it. I would also like to thank, personally, my mom and dad. You guys have been there for me through thick and thin throughout all these years. You have pushed me to become a better person and be who I truly am. Words will never describe how thankful I am for that. I would also like to thank my brother, Joshua. You are a role model to me and have done a lot for me. Thank you for all those times you helped me with math problems I didn't understand. As you all leave here tonight and we go our separate ways, I would like to leave you with a quote from Steve Jobs, "Your time is limited, don't waste it living someone else's life. Don't be trapped by dogma, which is living the result of other people's thinking. Don't let the noise of other's opinions drown your inner voice. And most important, have the courage to follow your heart and intuition, they somehow already know what you truly want to become. Everything else is secondary."

MEMORARE TO OUR LADY OF LASALETTE

Remember Our Lady of LaSalette...true Mother of Sorrows, the tears you shed for us on Calvary. Remember also the care you have taken to keep us faithful to Christ, your son. Having done so much for your children, you will not now abandon us. Comforted by this consoling thought, we come to you pleading, despite our infidelities and ingratitude.

Virgin of Reconciliation...do not reject our prayers but intercede for us, obtain for us, the grace to love Jesus above all else. May we console you by living a holy life and so come to share the eternal life Christ gained by his Cross. Amen.

Our Lady of LaSalette...Reconciler of sinners, pray without ceasing for us who have recourse to you.

THE MOST HOLY BODY & BLOOD OF CHRIST
(CORPUS CHRISTI)

First Reading: Genesis 14:18-20

Melchizedek, a priest of God, prayed that Abram would be blessed by God. He also praised God for delivering Abram's foes into his hands.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 11:23-26

Paul describes Jesus' actions during the last supper. Jesus broke bread and said it was his body given for us, asking that we do the same in remembrance of him. He then passed the cup and called it his blood. Jesus then asked us to break bread in this manner to remember his death until he returns.

Gospel: Luke 9:11b-17

Jesus spoke to a large crowd when his disciples asked that he dismiss the people to give them a chance to find food and lodging. Jesus asked the disciples to give the crowd something to eat, but they had only five loaves of bread and two fish. Jesus then blessed and distributed the food, which fed about 5,000 people. Twelve baskets were then collected from what was left over.
