Dear Parishioners,

November 7 was a great day for our parish. We celebrated 36 adults who received the Sacrament of Confirmation. Congratulations to all those who received the Sacrament..! We continue to pray that they be guided by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Do you know how important it is to receive this Sacrament? I still remember the statement Fr. Peter Langevin made in his homily when he was here to officiate the sacrament in 2019, just after my arrival in St. James. He said, 'It is hard to see the adults back in the church after their confirmation'. I thought about it a lot and I still think about it.

Do you know how holy we become by receiving this Sacrament? The Holy Spirit comes down and dwells in us. And we receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit: Wisdom (the perfection of faith), Understanding (the comprehension of truth), Counsel (the supernatural prudence), Fortitude (which allows us to overcome fear and makes us steady to face obstacles in life), Knowledge (perfection of faith - the actual ability to do so), Piety (the perfection of virtue of religion—willingness to worship) and Fear of the Lord (the desire not to offend God).

When we live these gifts in our life we produce the fruits of the Holy Spirit: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, gentleness, faithfulness and self-control. We read in Paul's letter to the Romans 15:13 "May God, the source of hope, fill you with all joy and peace by means of your faith in him, so that your hope will continue to grow by the power of the Holy Spirit". It would service us well to say even a short prayer each day to the Holy Spirit for his help and guidance in our journey of life.

We celebrated the National Vocation Awareness Week, from November 6-12. An annual week-long celebration of the Catholic Church in the United States dedicated to promoting vocations to the priesthood, diaconate, and consecrated life through prayer and education, and to renew our prayers and support for those who are considering one of these particular vocations. Let us continue to pray for vocations

Fr. Roy Parayil, M.S.

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIMEFirst Reading: Malachi 3:19-20a

The prophet Malachi warned that the time would come when all the evil people would be punished. He then speaks of the arrival of "the sun of justice, with its healing rays," believed by most to mean Jesus.

Second Reading: 2 Thessalonians 3:7-12

Some of the Thessalonians claimed Christ's return was imminent, so they stopped working and asked others for food. Paul describes his willingness to work, so that he would not impose on others. He encourages them to follow his example and earn their own living.

Gospel: Luke 21:5-19

Jesus warns of the persecution all Christians will face because of him, and how some will even be put to death. Yet he says they will not be harmed because "by patient endurance you will save your lives." If Jesus' followers are loyal, they will be resurrected and their suffering will end.

THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do Thou, O Prince of the heavenly hosts, by The power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.

MEMORARE TO OUR LADY OF LASALETTE

REMEMBER OUR LADY OF LASALETTE...true Mother of Sorrows, the tears you shed for us on Calvary. Remember also the care you have taken to keep us faithful to Christ, your son. Having done so much for your children, you will not now abandon us. Comforted by this consoling thought, we come to you pleading, despite our infidelities and ingratitude. VIRGIN OF RECONCILIATION...do not reject our prayers but intercede for us, obtain for us, the grace to love Jesus above all else. May we console you by living a holy life and so come to share the eternal life Christ gained by his Cross. Amen. OUR LADY OF LASALETTE... Reconciler of sinners, pray without ceasing for us who have recourse to you.

PLANNING A WEDDING... Arrangements for your marriage should be made with the Church first, as this is the most important part of your wedding day. To secure your wedding date with the church you must first have the initial interview with one of the priests and also have paid the church deposit
