DAYDREAMS OF A PASTOR...

February 11th we celebrate the World Day of the Sick. Pope (Saint) John Paul II in 1992 established this day as a way to promote awareness of the challenges faced by the sick and suffering and to encourage compassionate care for the sick.

The day coincides with the Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes, a day associated with healing miracles. The day serves as a reminder to us about the essential role the healthcare professionals play in providing support and comfort to the sick. It fosters a sense of unity in us that we have a shared responsibility in addressing the needs of the sick around the world.

The care for the sick is only one aspect of this special day. It also has a spiritual aspect of healing. We usually hear many of our faithful healthcare professionals saying, 'we will do whatever is possible but you should pray for us that God may guide us and work through us'. This is a clear witness that a holistic approach of both physical and spiritual dimensions of care for the sick are important.

As we celebrate the feast of Our Lady of Lourdes, The message that our Blessed Mother gives is nothing other than that of the Gospel. God comes to tell us that he loves us, and he loves us as we are with all our successes but also with all our wounds, our weaknesses and our limitations.

Mary stresses the importance of prayer, especially the rosary. Our Lady appeared with a rosary hanging from her right arm. The need of prayer in our lives is very well stressed by our Blessed Mother in all her apparitions. As we celebrate the feast of our Blessed Mother and the World day of the sick, we are also invited to pray for all the sick through her intercession.

Those sick and who need our care may be in our own homes, in our work places, in nursing homes, in healthcare facilities; are we extending our hands towards them? Are we praying for them? Mary at Lourdes asked us to pray even for sinners.

Let us pray that the Lord may show his kindness on all the sick and all those who need conversion of their hearts.

Fr. Roy Parayil, M.S.

FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME*First Reading: Job 7:1-4, 6-7

In this passage, Job laments the drudgery and pain all people sometimes experience in life. He talks of troubled days and restless nights. But he does mention that the days move along swiftly, which can remind us that our time here on earth is quite limited and should be well spent.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 9:16-19, 22-23

Paul explains to the Corinthians that he has no choice, but must preach the gospel. He tells of making himself all things to all people, in order to save some of them. He reminds them that he does this willingly, in the hope of sharing in the blessings of the gospel.

Gospel: Mark 1:29-39

Jesus cured Simon and Andrew's mother of a fever, then others with illnesses or demons came to see him. He cured those who were ill, and cast out the demons of the others. Then he went off and prayed alone until his followers sought him out. Jesus and his disciples then moved on to other villages to proclaim the good news.

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS...Loving and generous God, it is You who call us by name and ask us to follow You. Help us to grow in the love and service of our Church as we experience it today. Give us the energy and courage of Your Spirit to shape its future. Grant us faith-filled leaders who will embrace Christ's mission of love and justice. Bless St. James parish by raising up dedicated and generous leaders from our families and friends who will serve Your people as Priests, Deacons, Brothers, Sisters and Lay Ministers. Inspire us to know you better and open our hearts to listen to Your call. We ask this through Christ our Lord... Amen.

Our Lady of La Salette, Reconciler of Sinners, pray without ceasing for us who have recourse to You.

PRAYER TO ST. MICHAEL...

St. Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our defense against the wickedness and snares of the devil. May God rebuke him, we humbly pray, and do Thou, O Prince of the heavenly host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all the evil spirits who prowl about the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen.
