DAYDREAMS OF A PASTOR...

in your life.

We celebrate Mother's Day, and I hope you all have prepared an extraordinary event to show your love and appreciation for the special lady in your life. This should be a perfect day of celebration dedicated to honoring your mom and all the extraordinary women

The month of May we dedicate to our Blessed Mother, Queen of Heaven, providing an opportunity to focus on our relationship with the Holy Mother of Christ. We each relate to Our Holy Mother Mary differently because we relate to our earthly mothers in unique ways. As our mother, Mary has much to teach us and endless love to give and on this Mother's Day it will be great to reflect on Mary, our heavenly mother.

There are three feasts of Mary we celebrate this month - on May 13th we celebrate the feast of Our Lady of Fatima, On May 24th we celebrate the feast of Mary Help of Christians and on May 31st the Visitation of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

While dying on the cross for us, Jesus Christ did not forget us or his mother. He tells His Mother Mary in John 19:26, "Woman, here is your son." In the next verse, Jesus tells the disciple John, "Here is your mother." Since the time of the apostles and early church fathers, we have believed that this passage is not merely Jesus making sure someone is taking care of His mother. That practicality would've been arranged much earlier, having known His time was coming, or been taken care of afterward by His devoted followers, who would not abandon her. This exchange means Jesus gave us His mother as our mother and us to her as her children.

Let's not neglect this momentous gift of maternal love. We might have varying relationships with her, but we should all seek strong connections with her. To celebrate this year's Mother's Day, our Vocation Committee has come up with a special event called "ladies Tea" on May 18th to make this a memorable day.

This day is special to all of us and so show your mom, grandma, aunt, or any other special lady in your life how much she means to you.

Fr. Roy Parayil, M.S.

SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER*First Reading: Acts 1:15-17, 20a, 20c-26

The disciples decided that someone should take the place of Judas, who killed himself in remorse for betraying Jesus. They nominated two who had been among them from the time of Jesus' baptism to the crucifixion. Then they drew lots to decide who would join them as witnesses of the resurrection.

Second Reading: 1 John 4:11-16

John reminds us that God dwells in those who love one another. We have come to know God's love for us. Only by loving one another can we be sure that God will remain with us always.

Gospel: John 17:11b-19

Jesus prays for his disciples at the Last Supper. He knows that by knowing the word of God as they do, they no longer belong to the world. He asks that God consecrate them in truth and protect them from the enemies they have made because of their belief in Jesus.
