DAYDREAMS OF A PASTOR...

Every year on the first day of Lent the Church reminds us that we will all return to dust. As we begin this season of penance together yet again, we rejoice that the Church is always honest with us – honest about our mortality and our sinfulness. Above all the Church is honest about the forgiveness and salvation made possible in Christ.

“He chooses to be by our side, even when we get lost, and if he gave his life because he loved us, how could he not forgive our sins?”

Lent is a time to pray, a time for forgiveness and a time for giving. We are invited to listen to and follow Jesus, and to allow ourselves to be transformed by His words, which are “spirit and life”. The season of Lent is a time when we dispose of our hearts by listening, receiving and living out the word and bearing fruit. The more we unite ourselves to Jesus through prayer, sacred scripture, the Eucharist, the sacraments and fraternity, the more there will grow in us the joy of cooperating with God in the service of the kingdom of mercy and truth, of justice and peace.

Lent provides a time to refocus on our relationships with God and others through prayer, fasting and doing good deeds. Lent is a journey of return to God. As we begin the season of Lent and particularly on Ash Wednesday, God is speaking to our hearts. In this life, we will always have things to do and excuses to offer, but..., right now is the time to return to God.

Lent is not just about the little sacrifices we make, but about discerning where our hearts are directed. This is the core of Lent: asking where our hearts are directed... The ashes on our head this week will remind us that ‘we are dust and unto dust we shall return...’ We will always be dust, but as a liturgical hymn says, ‘dust in love.’

Jesus lives and walks along the paths of ordinary life to draw near to everyone, beginning with the least, and to heal us of our infirmities and illnesses.

Fr. Roy Parayil, M.S.

EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIMEFirst Reading: Sirach 27:4-7

This reading explains that quality and truth in conversation is a test for humankind. Only after listening to a person's reasoning can we know the mind of another.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 15:54-58

Paul speaks of the mystery of transformation that is victory over death when our mortality puts on immortality. We are encouraged by Paul to be steadfast and immovable, filling our lives with the work of the Lord.

Gospel: Luke 6:39-45

Today, Jesus teaches through the use of parables, first encouraging us to be like the teacher, understand that the blind cannot lead the blind. Jesus also reminds us that only the heart's good treasure produces good. In order to remain steadfast, we must heed what Jesus tells us. If we hear God's word, our foundation will be strong, unshaken, steadfast, built upon rock.

For Lent for Life

Lent is a time of opportunity for us to strengthen our faith through prayer, fasting, and almsgiving. These practices bring us closer to God and demonstrate our solidarity with those in need at home and around the world. This Lent make your sacrifices become opportunities to feed the hungry poor. Please participate in CRS Operation Rice Bowl and let the sacrifices you make for the hungry poor nourish them and may these sacrifices witness to the love that Disciples of Christ have for all people, especially for the least of the Lord’s sisters and brothers.

PLANNING A WEDDING...Arrangements for your marriage should be made with the Church first, as this is the most important part of your wedding day. To secure your wedding date with the church you must first have the initial interview with one of the priests and also have paid the church deposit.

PILGRIMS OF HOPE
2025 JUBILEE YEAR PRAYER

Father in heaven, may the faith you have given us in your son, Jesus Christ, our brother, and the flame of charity enkindled in our hearts by the Holy Spirit, reawaken in us the blessed hope for the coming of your kingdom.

May your grace transform us into tireless cultivators of the Seeds of the Gospel.

May those seeds transform from within both humanity and the whole cosmos in the sure expectation of a new heaven and a new earth, when, with the powers of Evil vanquished, your glory will shine eternally.

May the grace of the Jubilee reawaken in us, Pilgrims of Hope, a yearning for the treasures of heaven.

May that same grace spread the joy and peace of our Redeemer throughout the earth.
