DAYDREAMS OF A PASTOR...

This week we celebrate the Feast of Presentation of the Lord / the world day for Consecrated Life.

The feast commemorates the purification of the Blessed Virgin Mary and the presentation of the Child Jesus in the Temple. Mary and Joseph took Jesus to fulfill their obligation of consecrating him to God with their offering. And by offering Jesus in the Temple, they conveyed to the world that Jesus belonged to God.

The feast reminds us of our consecration to God. Our consecration in Baptism is the fundamental dimension of Christian life through which we accept and proclaim, that we belong to God. Our daily life must witness to this belongingness to God. We are God's Temple - Jesus must be present and be presented in this temple for all to see.

The feast of Presentation helps us to realize the dedication and humbleness we need in life. Like Simeon and Anna recognized him as the light of revelation, we need to recognize the savior in our midst and receive him in our lives. This is possible only if we long for him through prayer and meditation on the Word of God.

As consecrated individuals, we are called to reveal Christ to others. But to do so, we must first experience a deep 'temple moment' – a personal and transformative encounter with God. Only then can we become true instruments of His love and salvation.

I am happy to be a consecrated religious for the past 28 years and I feel that the core of religious life is the search for God. It is the responsibility of religious to fear and fight against; a god of the imagination and of human dreams, a god who is an idol rather than a reality calling us to growth. I realize the need of constantly consecrating myself to God in answer to His call, to seek the real God, the flame of love that burns and quenches the deepest yearnings of my heart. It is a call to grow in wisdom and grace. It is a fundamental truth of our Christian tradition that all we are and have, comes from God, as a gift.

Let us re-consecrate ourselves to God, renewing our commitment to His mission and express our deepest gratitude to consecrated men and women for their devotion, commitment and selfless love.

Fr. Roy Parayil, M.S.

Christmas Gift

Christmas marks the beginning of the Ultimate Gift, God's gift of His only son, Jesus Christ. Tradition holds that the three kings or wise men followed the star to bring gifts to the newborn king, beginning a tradition of gift giving to the Christmas season we enjoy each and every year. But what about the gifts that God has bestowed upon each and every one of us during the year and throughout our lifetimes? We are merely stewards of these gifts. Christmas is a spiritual opportunity to make a return to God of His many blessings at Christmas. We will have a second collection at the Christmas Masses this year to help the future programs and renovations of our parish.

Year - End Giving

Every organization has a program called Year End Giving. Most parishes follow this lead. You are welcome to contribute all through the month of December and January for this special cause which will help make an investment for our parish.

An Investment in Your Parish

For many years, our Catholic parishes have benefitted from the enormous contributions and dedication of religious men and women (priests, brothers and sisters) who have given their entire lives in the service to parishes, schools, dioceses and many other Church ministries. Now, our Catholic Church and educational ministries are even broader and serve more people than ever before despite the decline in the numbers of religious. Many dedicated lay people now staff these programs and must be compensated with just and living wages. Your Christmas and year end gift is an investment in these quality programs.

Celebrate the joy of Christmas by giving in the true spirit of the season. A last reminder to make that special gift or increased gift that you've wanted to make during the year. Most importantly, make a return to God of your blessings at Christmas and assist St. James to attain its spiritual and programmatic goals; serving God's people and His Church here on earth.

You may please use the Year-End envelopes found at each entrance to the church. Thank you.

Fr. Roy Parayil, M.S.
