DAYDREAMS OF A PASTOR...

February 11th marks the anniversary of the first apparition of the Blessed Virgin Mary in 1858 to fourteen-year-old Bernadette. Between February 11 and July 16, 1858, the Blessed Virgin appeared eighteen times and showed herself to Bernadette in the hollow of the rock at Lourdes.

On March 25, she said to her: "I am the Immaculate Conception." Since then, Lourdes has become a place of pilgrimage and many cures and conversions have taken place. The veneration of the Blessed Virgin Mary took place in Lourdes, the image of Our Lady of Lourdes has been widely copied and reproduced in shrines, homes, and in garden landscapes. Marian devotion has since steadily increased and a large church was built at the site that has become a major site of religious pilgrimage in the coming years.

What was the message of her apparition? It is a message that is nothing other than that of the Gospel. God comes to tell us that he loves us – this is the heart of the Message of Lourdes, and he loves us as we are with all our successes but also with all our wounds, our weaknesses and our limitations.

Mary stresses the importance of personal conversion, prayer and charity. Our Lady appeared with a rosary hanging from her right arm. She invited Bernadette to pray the rosary with her. The need for prayer in our lives is very well stressed by our Blessed Mother in all her apparitions. The spiritual message is that of personal conversion. Mary said, "Penance, penance, penance, pray for sinners." By penance we understand conversion. Conversion in the Church, as we learn from Christ, involves turning our heart towards God and towards others.

On this world day of the sick, we remember the struggles of those who are sick. Mary's journey was marked by suffering, from the moment she said "yes" to God's call. Yet, she persevered, knowing that the Lord was with her. In her silence, she found the meaning of suffering. In our own struggles, we may feel alone, but Mary reminds us that God is always near. Let us seek to understand the mystery of suffering and find hope in God's presence.

Fr. Roy Parayil, M.S.

FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIMEFirst Reading: Isaiah 58:7-10

This reading is a vigorous exhortation from the prophet Isaiah to lead lives of active charity and generosity. He promises that the Lord will be our "dawn," our "rear guard," our "light" if we share our bread, shelter the homeless, and clothe the naked.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 2:1-5

Paul tells the Corinthians that he and they must not rely on the so-called "wisdom" of secular teaching and philosophy but on the power of the Spirit.

Gospel: Matthew 5:13-16

Jesus reminds the disciples and all Christians that they carry special responsibilities to be "the salt of the earth." They must not hide their light but show their goodness to all.
