DAYDREAMS OF A PASTOR...

All of us have high moments and low moments; dramatic moments of being on the top of the mountain and depressing moments of being down in the valley. Last Sunday, we heard of Jesus being tempted in the desert to doubt his sonship: If you are the Son of God... Today, we hear the voice of the Father, affirming This is my beloved Son.

Jesus takes the three disciples with him and leads them up a high mountain. Top of the mountain experiences are never self-generated but gifted. We cannot cause but only receive them. Jesus takes the three up a high mountain where they could be alone. A certain climate of silence and solitude is necessary if we are to behold Jesus.

Through the Transfiguration Jesus is preparing the apostles for his suffering and death. The risen Christ will tell these same disciples, who will themselves face persecution even to the point of exile and death, As the Father has sent me, so I send you. As the Father was with Jesus through his temptations, his suffering, and his death, so Jesus promises to be with us in all of the trials He knows we will face. The transfigured glory of Jesus strengthens us in this holy season of Lent and reminds us that we are not alone, but in the company of Jesus. We should ask him to grant us the strength and courage we need in our lives.

The holy season of Lent speaks to our daily struggles and sorrows, showing how the answer to all life's troubles is found in Jesus Christ. By spending time in prayer and meditation we will discover all that is true, good and beautiful in our faith. God makes a grand promise of hope and prosperity to those who will live by faith. We must never allow ourselves to forget that He handed over His beloved Son for us. As he is the heart of the Scriptures, he must be at the heart of our faith, our way of life in our continued Lenten journey.

Heavenly Father, in my times of trial deliver me from all doubt and distress through the enduring presence of your Son through the grace of the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Fr. Roy Parayil, M.S.

SECOND SUNDAY OF LENT

First Reading: Genesis 12:1-4a

God calls Abraham to leave his family and people and go to a new land. God promises to make the people of this new nation great and to bless Abraham.

Second Reading: 2 Timothy 1:8b-10

Paul, from his place of imprisonment in Rome, writes words of encouragement to Timothy, telling him that Christ is for them everlasting life.

Gospel: Matthew 17:1-9

Wishing to reveal His glory to Peter, James and John, Jesus takes them to a mountain where he is transfigured before them. When Peter exclaims that he will build three tabernacles here in honor of Jesus, Moses and Elijah, a voice from above proclaims: "This is My beloved Son on whom My favor rests. Listen to him."
